

So You Are Considering a Career as an Entrepreneur? Let's Talk...

- Do you know the odds and how to beat them?
- Do you know how to raise the money to get started?
- Getting set up—go big or go small?
- Do you know the “Can’t Miss” success formula?
- Plan A...Plan B...Plan C...Plan D?

Concepts you need to know and understand before you get started:

Have you thought about why you should or should not start your own business?

When you should or should not grow your existing business.

Do you know what the growing pains might be and are they worth it?

Do you know how to survive your first five years?

How will being in business for yourself affect your marriage, your other family members and your lifestyle?

How do you make a REAL business from your idea or hobby?

How do you know when it's really YOUR BUSINESS?

Will your ego or pride make you or break you?

What happens if you fail?

The Game of Life...The Game of Business...Gambling...Everyday.

Do you know who and when to ask for help? Make it sooner rather than later.

- Existing Support

Do you know how to write a business plan? Be firm yet have some flex when necessary.

Have you evaluated your strengths and weaknesses?

Do you know what your goals are and how to monitor them?

Do your daily activities and commitment match your goals? Are they realistic?

Employees—blessings or curses?

Owning your own business is more than MONEY—way more.

So you want to get RICH?

Do you understand the changes in the business arena and are you reacting accordingly?

Do you understand the role of your bank in starting your business?

Understand Successful Entrepreneurs—what characteristics do they have in common?

Do you have what it takes?

Do you really want to subject yourself and your family to this?

Singles Hitter...Doubles Hitter...Triples Hitter...Home Run Hitter